Privacy Policy

Protecting your privacy is important to us. We hope the following statement will help you understand how we collect, use and safeguard the personal information you provide to us on our site.

When you visit IronHubWines.com, our analytics from Google collects some basic information about your browser. Examples are things like what type of browser and operating system are you using, how long you stayed on our site, and what pages you looked at. This helps us understand how visitors browse our site so that we can make their shopping experience better.

We also collect personal information about you when you check out of our online shop such as your name, address, postal code, phone number, etc. We need this information to process payment and ship merchandise to you.

We Do Not Share Information

Under no circumstances will we share any information that we collect with any third parties or websites. All the information you give us is completely private and used solely for order processing and shipping. If you give us permission to send you marketing emails then we use your email for that purpose, but never does that email get sold or distributed to any other website or list.

Email Newsletter Opt-Out

If you have chosen to opt into our newsletter or marketing emails and decide to opt out, we have a simple unsubscribe form that will let you get off our email list.

Consumer Inquiries and Privacy

If you have any questions about your privacy, or want to make changes to your profile, or be removed from our newsletter or marketing list, simply send us an email to info@ironhubwines.com.

Protecting Your Information

All the payment information we collect is done so under SSL - a standard internet security measure. Any data that we store about you is kept behind a secure firewall in our database and is not accessible to the public in any way.
